

conditions

living

dead

never alive

alive

habitat

micro-habitat

food chain

shelter

seashore

woodland

ocean

rainforest

savannah

equator

climate

country

continent

compare

ocean

human feature

physical feature

location

fieldwork

measure

centimetres

metres

grams

kilograms

litres

millilitres

quarter past

quarter to

minutes

hours

salvation

Easter

forgiveness

sacrifice

confession

resurrection

incarnation

thankfulness

nature

pattern

symmetrical

brushstroke

seascape

landscape

shape

sketch

Equator:

Etymology. The name is derived from medieval Latin word aequator, in the phrase circulus aequator diei et noctis, meaning 'circle equalizing day and night', from the Latin word aequare 'make equal'.

Year 2
Term 5 & 6